

ALISTAIR YOUNG

ABRIDGE RESUMÉ

Safety, Health and Environmental Legal Consultant: IMBEWU Sustainability Legal Specialists (Pty) Ltd

Professional Assistant: Warburton Attorneys

EDUCATION

- BA (Environmental Science), University of Cape Town, 1997 to 1999.
- LLB, University of Cape Town, 2000 to 2002
- LLM (Environmental Law), University of Cape Town, 2003 to 2004

ATTORNEYS ADMISSION:

- Admitted and enrolled as an Attorney in the Cape of Good Hope Provincial Division, March 2006 as well as the Transvaal Provincial Division in 2008.

EXPERIENCE:

Currently:

- Specialising in Environmental Law, with a particular focus on research, development of electronic legal registers for mining and non-mining operations and legal compliance auditing.
- Conducting environmental-legal compliance evaluations ("audits") of numerous industrial and mining operations throughout South Africa.
- Conducting health and safety legal compliance evaluations ("audits") of numerous industrial and mining operations throughout South Africa.
- Assistance with all other services provided by IMBEWU, including risk assessments, evaluation of EIA reports, legal register training, South African legislation training, legal opinion drafting, providing general legal support and assisting with database maintenance.

October 2004 to February 2006:

- Candidate Attorney with Scheibert & Associates, Cape Town: General and Commercial Litigation Department.

February 2006 to February 2007

- Professional Assistant with Scheibert & Associates, Cape Town: General and Commercial Litigation Department.

PAPERS / ACTIVITIES:

- Book: Made contributions to the drafting of Know your Environmental Rights! A practical guide to Environmental Law in South Africa
- Papers: From the Minerals Act to the Minerals and Petroleum Resources Development Act: Is South Africa's Unique Environment protected from the negative impacts of mining?
- This Dammed World: The effects of large dams on the environment and how these effects can be curtailed by the implementation of various International Environmental Conventions (LLM Dissertation).